4th Sunday After Epiphany

When Jesus saw his ministry drawing huge crowds, he climbed a hillside. Those who were apprenticed to him, the committed, climbed with him. Arriving at a quiet place, he sat down and taught his climbing companions. This is what he said: "You're blessed when you're at the end of your rope. With less of you there is more of God and his rule." (Matthew 5:1-12)

The following quote is from one of our homeless Neighbors in the Room in the Inn program:

"For moments each night, if I am fortunate, I sleep not as homeless in the street, but with warmth and friendship, thanks to 'Room in the Inn'. Somewhere during the evenings of friendly faces, piping-hot showers, videos and jokes, laughs and sharing a smoke break, I was transformed from homeless to someone with a misfortune. I no longer view the world from ground zero, where each may view my launch. I thank you, all who volunteer for this program. You have given me fortitude, I am sure that I am not alone in this."
